

JULY 28, 1893.

While in the Canadian Cutter Curlew, running between Deer Island and Indian Island, Passamaquoddy Bay, we saw very large numbers of sand larks, or Jack snipe, as well as gulls resting upon the water. On what were they feeding, copepods, shrimps, or what?